

Los Alamos honored by Española Valley Chamber of Commerce

February 1, 2013

In late January, the Española Valley Chamber of Commerce recognized the Lab for its support to the chamber and the entire Espanola Valley with a President's Choice Award. Kurt Steinhaus with the Lab's Community Programs Office (CPO) accepted the award on behalf of the institution.

The Lab received the award for efforts in a variety of areas: participation by CPO's Vangie Trujillo as a chamber board member, support of the local department of education and schools, improvement of the quality of life for its citizens and scholarships for local students.
